Form 5498-SA: HSA information

These are IRS instructions that we are required to provide to you.

Instructions to Participant

This information is submitted to the Internal Revenue Service by the trustee of your health savings account (HSA).

Generally, contributions you or someone other than your employer make to your HSA are deductible on your tax return. Employer contributions to your HSA may be excluded from your income and are not deductible by you. You and your employer can make contributions to your HSA in the same year.

See Form 8889, Health Savings Accounts (HSAs) and its instructions. Any employer contributions made to HSAs are shown on your Form W-2 in Box 12 (code W).

For more information, see Pub. 969, Health Savings Accounts and Other Tax-Favored Health Plans.

Participant's identification number. For your protection, this form may show only the last four digits of your social security number (SSN), individual tax identification number (ITIN), or adoption tax identification number (ATIN). However, the issuer has reported your complete identification number to the IRS, and where applicable, to state and/or local governments.

Account number. May show an account or other unique number the trustee assigned to distinguish your account.

Note. The information in lines 2 and 3 is provided by the trustee for IRS use only.

Line 1. Does not apply to this account.

Line 2. Shows the total contributions made in 2015 to your HSA. This includes qualified HSA funding distributions (trustee-to-trustee transfers) from your IRA to fund your HSA. See Pub. 969 for who can make contributions.

Line 3. Shows the total HSA contributions made in 2016 for 2015.

Line 4. Shows any rollover contribution from an HSA or Archer MSA to this HSA. See Form 8853 or Form 8889 and their instructions for information about how to report distributions. This amount is not included in line 1, 2, or 3.

Line 5. Shows the fair market value of your HSA at the end of 2015.

Line 6. Shows the type of account that is reported on this Form 5498-SA.

Other information. The trustee of your HSA may provide other information about your account on this form.

Note. Do not attach Form 5498-SA to your income tax return. Instead, keep it for your records.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form 5498-SA and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/form5498sa.

For additional information on your 5498-SA, please visit fidelity.com/taxstatementguides.

If you make any HSA contributions for 2015 between January 1 and April 18, 2016, Fidelity will mail an updated Form 5498-SA to you by May 31, 2016.
